

Pocatello/Chubbuck School District #25

Parental Objection to Release of High School Student Information to Military Recruiters and/or Institutions of Higher Learning

A recently enacted federal law mandates the release of the name, address and telephone number of your child to military recruiters or institutions of higher learning.

The law provides, in relevant part, that the School District “(1).. shall provide, on a request made by a military recruiter or an institution of higher education, access to secondary school students’ names, addresses and telephone listings, (2) Consent – A secondary school student or the parent of the students may request that the student’s name, address and telephone listing described in paragraph 1 not be released without written parental consent...”.

According to the new law, you may request that your child’s name, address and telephone listing not be released without your consent.

If you do not want your child’s name, address and telephone listing provided to military recruiters and/or institutions of higher education, check the appropriate boxes on the form below.

If you do not completely fill out the form and sign it, your child’s name, address and telephone listing will be made available to military recruiters and/or institutions of higher education.

Return this form to the registrar at your child’s school.
